1. Bulgarian families belonging to the Bulgarian Communist Party are required to send their children to preparatory military training camps at the age of 15. Children who are 17 years old also engage in antiaircraft and chemical defense training. In the "preparation camp" at Karnobat, these young men are also trained as parachutists and pursuit (sic) troops.
 2. Recruits for this type of training are received at the Militia headquarters in each village and village authorities assist the Militia.
 3. In certain cases, the civilian population is evacuated from the areas where training is to be given. This was the case in the villages of Kichenitsa (sic), and Tischomir (N4118 E2530), Krumovgrad okoliya.
